

1 TEST

IBERIAN PENINSULA

1. Answer to the question:

- a. What's Europe?
- b. Name the the four largest peninsulas in Europe.
- c. What's a "peninsula"?
- d. How far is Africa into the narrowest point?
- e. Which is the western part of Penisula Iberica?
- f. What's the meaning of "plateau"?
- g. Think about the iberian physical map: which is the easier way to access to the peninsula? Why?

2. Fill in the blank map with the Iberian borders and the listened places:

PORTUGAL – TAGUS – SPAIN – PYRENEES – GUADALQUIVIR – EBRO – FRANCIA – BALEARIAN ISLANDS – CANARIAN ISLANDS – ANDORRA – STRAIT OF GIBRALTAR – CANTABRIAN CHAIN

3. True / False: correct the wrong sentence

	T	F
The Iberian Peninsula is the continent's second-largest peninsula
It is located on Europe's northeastern tip
It is between Atlantic Ocean to the north/west, and the Mediterranean Sea, to the south/east.
The Iberian Peninsula is separated from the rest of Europe by the Alps mountain range
It forms an irregular octagonal shape

CORRECTION:

.....

.....

.....

.....